Cornell-Emerson-Sheidley Waterline Project Update

The C.E.S. Project includes water main, meter and pit, and fire hydrant replacements on Cornell, Emerson, Sheidley, and Clark, south of Morse Avenue, and some new sidewalks on Sheidley and Cornell. The total waterline is approximately 4,000 feet.

Construction started on this project on December 18, 2018. The contractor, Orr Wyatt Streetscapes, is currently working on the waterline along Sheidley and moving south towards Pine. The project has a 6-7 month long construction period. As the project progresses, the contractor will finish up a road before starting on the next.

Staff and Resident Recognition
Patrol Case of the Quarter

Join us in congratulating Bonner Springs PD's best pup, K9 Scout, and his human partner Corporal Bargerstock! Scout and Corporal Bargerstock were nominated for Patrol Case of the Quarter, 3rd Quarter 2018, in the National Police Canine Association's North Central Region for their assistance with an aggravated assault on LEO pursuit initiated by Edwardsville Kansas Police Department. K9 Scout was able to take the suspect into custody after the pursuit. We are proud to announce that our cunning K9 duo won this prestigious award and will be nominated for Patrol Case of the Year! Good work team, you make the department and the city of Bonner Springs proud!

Happy Birthday Melba Mills!

This is Mayor Jeff Harrington and Melba Mills at her 100th Birthday party. The Mayor proclaimed Friday, December 7, 2018 (her birthday) as Melba Mills Day.

Thank You VFW 6401

Thank you to the VFW 6401 for their donation of ten flags for the Avenue of Flags at the Bonner Springs Cemetery.
